

MARCELLUS N. BARNES BURIED AT WOODLAWN

Music Was Feature of the Funeral Services Held Yesterday.

Funeral services over the body of Marcellus N. Barnes, whose death occurred on Friday, were held on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence on Maple avenue. Dr. H. G. Stetzer, of the First Presbyterian church, pastor of the deceased, conducted the services assisted by the Rev. Chas. Baird Mitchell, rector of Christ Episcopal church. A quartet composed of Mrs. Dorsey P. Fitch, Harriett Schroeder, James T. Eastman and Edmund Watson rendered two numbers, "On the Resurrection Morning" and "Art Thou Weary?" favorite selections of the deceased and Lamar Satterfield sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" with Mrs. Warder Cresson as piano accompanist.

At the conclusion of the services the body was conveyed to Woodlawn cemetery where it was buried in the family lot. The pallbearers included honorary pallbearers from the First Presbyterian church and the active pallbearers from Marion Lodge, I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a member, as follows: Harry Engle, J. Walter Barnes, H. B. Hungerford, M. L. Sturm, W. T. Black, F. C. Ewan, S. M. Eccles and W. S. Pitzer, P. L. Holland, C. W. Yates, L. C. Fitzhugh, J. M. Weaver.

Among relatives here for the services were Curtis Hamilton, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes, of Weston; Mrs. Harvey Smith, of Clarksburg; and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Barnes, of Weston.

MANNINGTON

Buried Here.

The body of Mrs. Mary Stevens, wife of Lindsey Stevens, was brought here on Friday from Houston, Texas, where she was killed in a runaway accident while driving home from church last Sunday week, in that city. The remains lay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lyall in Buffalo street over night, and were interred in the cemetery on Campbell's run on Saturday morning. The deceased was a former resident of this vicinity, and is survived by her husband and one son, Everett, who is on leave from an aviation camp at Houston. Mrs. Lyall is also a relative.

"Men and Boy" Meeting.

The "Men and Boy" meeting held at the M. E. church on Friday evening was well attended, and a splendid interest was manifested. One of the objects of the movement is to stimulate closer companionship and cooperation between father and son, and Judge W. S. Haymond, who was the principal speaker, made an eloquent appeal along that line. At the banquet which followed the guests were treated to a most happy combination—splendid refreshments, Mr. L. S. Schwenck as toastmaster to keep things moving, and both entertaining and instructive responses by Dr. Anderson, of Wheeling, Lieutenant Lawrence McClain, of Lima, Ohio, Rev. Beddow and others. Musical numbers on the program included selections by the Sunday school orchestra, and solos by Miss Sedmon, Sam Raborn and Glenn Norman.

MUTUAL LOVE CHIEF ELEMENT IN WEDLOCK

Sumptuous Living and Social Position Do Not Create Happy Couples.

Absence of mutual love results in unhappy marriages and eventually divorces, a curse in our land, declared Rev. Roy J. Meyer, pastor of Grace Lutheran church last evening in a special sermon on the divorce problem.

Some people get married for beauty; some people get married for wealth or social position, but all fall far short if "mutual love" is not an element. They may fare sumptuously like the rich man of old, but if "mutual love" is lacking there can be no happiness.

Divorces are granted as freely as licenses to wed are issued. He pointed out the attitude of the Lutheran church on the question, which permits divorce only on the grounds of adultery and then only the innocent party may re-marry. One of the mistakes being made he believed was marriage by civil authorities, declaring marriage was instituted by God. He quoted the scripture on the institution of marriage.

Inasmuch as marriage is sacred he believed that only the clergyman should perform the ceremony as for other spiritual rites, such as baptism or administration of the Lord's Supper, no one would think of calling in a civil official to perform them. Christ gave the government its proper place in answering the Jews. He warned his young women against the theory of reforming a man after marriage and also against those inclined toward drunkenness or lewdness.

FATHER JOSCHO'S STRONG STATEMENT

Endorses Plant Juice and Recommends it to All Sufferers of Stomach Trouble.

When nature calls for assistance it is needed quickly, but it must be a remedy that leaves no after-effects; that builds up, not tears down. This is the logical effect of Plant Juice, the new herbal stomach remedy, as is attested by the numerous testimonials of well-known local people, who have regained their health by the use of this famous preparation.

Local Board to Ship Draft Records Soon

Records of the city draft board will be shipped to Washington, D. C., direct it was learned on Saturday afternoon by Attorney John Henshaw, secretary of the board.

The probability is that no inspector will call at the local office to inspect the records before shipment.

It probably will require the greater portion of a week to prepare every thing just as the government wants it before shipment can be made.
